

Working for You

MISSION

Farm Bureau leads the agriculture industry and the community in addressing issues that result in long-term viability for agriculture and promoting the economic vitality of the region.

POLITICAL ACTION

Farm Bureau represents its members at the local, state and federal levels of government, bringing interests to the forefront of discussions surrounding issues that affect the agricultural industry.

COMMUNITY OUTREACH

Agricultural production is the largest economic contributor in Fresno County. FCFB strives to highlight the importance of the agricultural industry through devoted community leadership and media outreach.

EDUCATION

Farm Bureau takes a leading role in educating children and the public about agriculture. As the population continues to become further removed from the farm, FCFB helps bridge the gap between the consumer and the farmer.

ABOUT US

Fresno County Farm Bureau (FCFB) is a non-profit organization that promotes and protects agriculture. As part of a nationwide Farm Bureau network of more than five million members, FCFB provides agricultural advocacy and outreach activities for some of the most productive and efficient farmers in the world.

Friends of the Family Farm (FFF) is Fresno County Farm Bureau's (FCFB) premiere membership program, created to ensure the strength of the organization as well as Fresno County farmers and ranchers. Premium membership allows individuals and businesses to express a greater commitment to the goals of Farm Bureau. General membership is also available.
